DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/5/03 has been entered.

Specification

2. The amendment filed 3/5/03 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: "pivot about the point of connection" added to the paragraph beginning at page 8, line 23 and the limitation "member pivotally affixed to said cap" added to claim 18.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

3. The title and abstract of the invention is not descriptive. A new title and abstract is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed (ie. the apparatus rather than the method).

Art Unit: 3726

Claim Objections

4. Claim 17 is objected to because of the following informalities:

“bottom said” in line 9 should be - - bottom, said - -.

“whens aid” in lines 19-20 should be - - when said - -.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention and as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 17 recites “portions of said inner vessel are in contact with said flange” in lines 12-13. However, it is unclear how to make the invention because the “inner unitary vessel having an upper open end and a closed bottom” 20 shown in applicant’s fig. 1 is not in contact with the flange 28, the “inner unitary vessel” 20 is in contact with the cap 18 when assembled as shown in fig. 6. Furthermore, the elastomeric seal 30 is between the flange 28 and the inner vessel 20 as recited in lines 14-15 of claim 17 and shown in fig. 1. Therefore, the “inner unitary vessel” cannot contact the flange 28. Also, lines 14-15 of claim 17 recites “an elastomeric seal between said flange and said upper open end of said inner vessel and between said flange and said valve cup”. It is unclear how an elastomeric seal could be both between the flange and upper open end of the inner vessel and also between the flange and the valve cup. Fig. 1 only shows that the elastomeric seal 30 is between the flange 28 and the inner vessel 20. Finally, there is no support in the original disclosure that portions of the “inner unitary vessel” are in contact with the flange.

Claim 18 recites that the protective cap has a “member pivotally affixed to said cap” which constitutes new matter because there is no support for this limitation in the original disclosure.

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 17 recites that the outer unitary vessel has “an open top and a closed bottom” in lines 3-4. However, line 5 recites “said bottom defining an opening therethrough”. There appears to be inconsistency in what applicant considers “closed” because in line 10, the inner unitary vessel has “an upper open end and a closed bottom” and clearly shown in fig. 6. In fig. 1, what applicant considers to be the closed bottom 14 is actually open at 28 for the outer unitary vessel.

Art Unit: 3726

Since the outer vessel is claimed as "unitary" in line 3, the lid 116, valve cup 22, and cover 26 are not part of the unitary outer vessel 12. Therefore, it appears that the unitary outer vessel has an open top and an open bottom. Clarification is required.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17-19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
